Dear Friend:

A shocking perversion of law and justice is evident in the handling by the police of the recent Detroit race riot. These facts explain much: out of 34 persons killed, 25 were Negroes. Seventeen of the Negro deaths were directly attributable to police action. More than 1800 persons were arrested during the rioting; of those arrested more than 1,200 were Negroes. The police were "neutral against" the Negro on those bloody three days. This is not equality under law in the great tradition of American democracy.

Six weeks later to the day the New York City administration and police were tested in a similar situation. A dispute between a white policeman and a Negro soldier in New York's Harlem led to the bullet-wounding of the soldier. In the ensuing widespread civil disturbance, which might easily have degenerated into race riot, Mayor F. H. LaGuardia and his Police Commissioner succeeded in quelling the mob spirit by an exemplary exercise of firmness and tact. With the help of Negro leaders, including Walter White of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the civil disturbance carried on by an atypical minority was effectively suppressed. New York has demonstrated brilliantly that the police need not be an instrument against the Negro instead of a shield for the public.

Our reaction to the bloody events in Detroit may determine our country's racial policy for generations to come. For we do not need the lesson of New York to know that other "Detroits" threaten in almost every large city in America. Our stand may determine immediately our fortunes on world battlefronts where ideas are weapons, more powerful than armies, reaching across fortified frontiers into the minds and hearts of our enemies and our allies alike, the brown and the yellow skinned. A great part of the answer to the question raised throughout the world, "Does America mean freedom for ALL?" resides in our answer to Detroit.

In this crisis I ask you to associate yourself with the enclosed statement signed by more than one hundred leaders in

N.A.A.C.P. STATEMENT ON BI-RACIAL HOUSING FOR DETROIT

Submitted to the Detroit Housing Commission

By

Dr. James J. *McClendon, M.D.
President Detroit Branch N.A.A.C.P.
Thursday, April 22, 1943

While we are in the midst of an all out effort to accomplish the most strenuous task ever tackled by the United States, the winning of the war against fascism, we are today arguing in favor of the fundamental tenets of the democracy we wish to preserve, the enjoyment of certain rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens of the United States.

War housing is one of the prerequisites to victory. The Government has initiated an extensive program of housing for war workers which is designed to satisfy the need in specific areas. This is necessary in order that the materiel for victory can be speedily produced.

The Detroit Housing Commission, acting as agent for the Federal Public Housing Authority, is charged with certain duties and responsibilities relative to the operation of war housing projects erected in this area. It has the right to declare the policy of occupancy. FPHA has said that the local housing authority, in this case our OWN Commission, "shall make the decisions and take the responsibility for it."<sup>1</sup>

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People requests that a policy of occupancy which will be compatible and consistent with our war aims be declared immediately. To achieve the four freedoms for all, to live up to the noble sentiments embodied in the Atlantic Charter, to carry out the provisions of the United States Constitution and the Michigan Constitution, we urge that your honorable body declare a bi-racial policy of occupancy or all war housing projects now in process of building and those completed and ready for occupancy. We feel that this is your responsibility.

Segregation in war housing should not be the policy in Detroit. Michigan has a liberal background and history. We have always advanced the cause of minorities. This state was one of the stations on the underground railroad. Through Michigan and especially through Detroit, ran that vehicle which spirited thousands of slaves to freedom.

Michigan served nobly in the Civil War. It led the way in the abolition of slavery. For the cause of freedom, thousands of Michigan soldiers gave their lives in order that mankind in America could enjoy the rights of human equality.

Segregation has no place in democracy; segregation has no place in Michigan; segregation has no place in Detroit.
